Mr. Darras,

Your team at DarrasLaw really cared and worked hard to help me.

My family and I are lucky we found you and resolved our disability nightmare.

Thank you,

Simon W.

Watch this for quick tips for grilling safely. Are your bushes trimmed and away from the grill? Do you have the right kind of fire extinguisher within arms' reach? Is your grill out in the open and not under the eaves of your roof? More tips here.

If you haven't reviewed your insurance policies, now is a great time of year to make sure everything is properly protected and up-to-date.

QUESTION: My insurance company continues to delay processing my paperwork. They have requested the same information from me 3 times in 10 weeks and continue to say they do not have what they need. What are they doing?

ANSWER: This is a delay and deny tactic. When the economy is slow, this tactic keeps money in the coffers of the insurance company and makes their bottom line look stronger. This strategy is effective too, because most insurance companies are banking on the fact that sick people don't fight hard and old people don't live long. View our videos here for more information on how to protect yourself if this happens to you.
