It's that time of year again, kids going back to school and football season are topics that are trending in social media. In this issue, I discuss and provide videos about insurance that are important to college students and athletes, professional players and parents. Insurance is a vital product and a safety net everyone needs in order to protect our health, livelihoods, loved ones and property. At DarrasLaw, we help everyone who needs assistance by providing free policy analysis and free claim advice.

CLIENT
TESTIMONIALS

Please know how much it means to me for what all of you have done for me. Also, to continue to receive these funds is definitely going to assist me tremendously (it will never be forgotten).

Everyone has treated me as though I am the only case the firm has. Even though we know that is not the case, to be treated like an individual speaks volumes.

Again, Thank You as it is very much appreciated.

BT

Thank you for everything that you do. This firm is amazing. Can't wait for the outcome of my suit...it will get me right for the future, no doubt. Again, thank you for my children's future.

Football and Disabilities

College football has started and the NFL regular season begins this week. There have been some very interesting developments in the sport that shine a spotlight on the safety and health of players. Last week, the NFL settled a $765M lawsuit with more than 4,500 players and over 20,000 plaintiffs. NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell told the AP on September 4, 2014, "We were able to find common ground to be able to get relief to the players and their families now rather than spending years litigating,"
