Hello,

In the feature story at Best Lawyers, we discuss how disability insurance is a potential life source for athletes because it protects them from losing it all. Click to Read Complete Article.

Excerpt from Best Lawyers - For draft-eligible athletes and professional players, disability policies are a vital part of protecting their future income stream in the event of a career-ending injury.

Competition in football is fierce - for college players looking at the NFL and high school athletes with their sights set on playing ball for a top university.

In our video we look at Go Big or Go Home and what that means for players who want to play in the big leagues.

Mr. Darras,

This letter comes to you with my sincere gratitude to you and the "A" team.

Thank everyone for the excellent preparation and representation that was done, that led to the success of my case.

I want you to know that I will refer anyone I know who happens to be in a similar situation to your stellar team at DarrasLaw.

Sincerely,
Dr. Anthony C.

QUESTION:

My individual disability insurance claim has been denied, what do I do?

ANSWER:

Many policyholders make the mistake of trying to appeal on their own when it may not be necessary. Some policies require appeal and policyholders misread, misunderstand or just don't have enough familiarity with the legal language to know what to do. Contact a top insurance attorney before you make a fatal claim or appeal mistake so you and yours are protected.
